A cooperative individual who pays close attention to details

Motivated and capable of working autonomously in a hectic setting

When answering consumer inquiries, be resourceful and kind.

Inspired to acquire new knowledge

Your experience

Good news! Prior experience is not necessary. We train you so that you may succeed!

What you bring

The ability to work different hours, including weekends, nights, and days

able to lift up to fifty pounds and remain mobile during a shift

We concentrate on areas where we can have the most effect since our dedication to sustainability and social impact is fundamental to the way we do business. Our three pillars—environment, sourcing, and community—form the foundation of our approach to sustainability and social impact, and we are always searching for methods to show leadership in these crucial domains. Our Blue Culture brings our CORE Values—Care, Ownership, Respect, and Excellence—to life and serves as a compass for all of our decisions. As one of Canada's Top Employers, Canada's Best Diversity Employers, Canada's Greenest Employers, and Canada's Top Employers for Young People, we provide our coworkers with forward-thinking professions, extensive training, flexibility, and other competitive advantages.

We urge you to apply even if you are not sure whether your experience meets all of the aforementioned requirements. We are seeking a broad range of viewpoints and experiences to bring to our team.

Diversity, equality, and inclusion have always been important to us because we believe they will improve our business as a place to work and shop. We are dedicated to establishing accessible workplaces for our clients, prospects, and coworkers. At any point throughout the application and employment process, a request for accommodations based on a disability—whether apparent or invisible, temporary or permanent—can be made. In order to give fair chances, we invite applicants to communicate their accommodation requirements.

Please be aware that candidates must conduct a criminal background check if they are 18 years of age or older. Information will be made available throughout the application procedure.
